

A life changing encounter with Ignatius!

Looking back now weeks after arriving at Manresa, our final destination, I can confidently say it was a life changing encounter with Ignatius, the road, our walking group, the Spanish countryside and its people. Being a pilgrim is now something I feel deep within. The encounter with the Ignatian Way has helped me to see more clearly that my journey is about...

Continue reading here