

At the end of the Jesuit Formation

This was on the second half of March 2023. 8 Jesuits from Vietnam, living the experience of the Ignatian Way as part of their last formation. They call that the "Tertian Probation". Ignatius of Loyola, "the pilgrim" in his Autobiographie, thought that a Jesuit well formed should have experienced at least once the hardships of being a pilgrim. And so, these brave men came to Spain to endure the Way of Ignatius at the end of wintertime. Still some snow at Urbia plains...

If you want to watch more pictures and to keep reading, click here