

From Indonesia to the Ignatian Way... a long Way to find God in everything!

There is no short way to the longest pilgrimage of all: our life to God and His Kingdom! Ignatius knew very well that his life should take the shape of a pilgrimage if he wanted to find love in everything. This is why we become pilgrims as well! What do these Indonesian pilgrims think about their Ignatian Way? The reason i took my time until today to write is because i feel that the Camino walk still continues...

Continue reading and photo gallery, here.

