Credential

Be sure to have your pilgrim “passport” stamped in each town you pass or spend the night. You can often obtain a stamp in a local parish, restaurant, or town hall. The stamps will signify that you are an authentic pilgrim. Some hostels may not permit you to spend the night unless you can show an evidence of stamps from each day of your pilgrimage.

Be sure to obtain your credential or “passport” before beginning your pilgrimage. You can present your passport at pilgrim hostels along the route as evidence that you are a genuine pilgrim and not simply a wanderer looking for a cheap place to stay!
