The Pilgrim's Office is subject to the administration of the Provincial Father of the Province of Spain of the Society of Jesus and his delegated bodies. It is the central administration of the Society of Jesus in Spain that audits the use of heritage and treasury, assets that the Pilgrim's Office uses to achieve its objectives.

Our objectives are:

Collaborate with us to make the Ignatian Way great, and that many people from all continents can benefit from a transforming pilgrimage proposal.

help discover and make explicit the spirituality that moves the heart of every human being, relying on the spirit of the pilgrim, promote and consolidate the Ignatian Way, its tourist, historical-cultural, economic and spiritual resources, collaborating with public and private, lucrative and non-profit, civil and religious entities, individuals and legal entities.

If you wish to specify the project towards which your help is directed, you can do so simply by naming the destination chosen for your donation in an e-mail that you send us to our Office: oficina.central@caminoignaciano.org
