

Following in the footsteps of Íñigo, 500 years after him

Standing in the long line to check-in at Brussels Airport, I scrolled through my emails on my phone to pass the time. The words from Proverbs 3:5-6 leapt out at me from my Lenten reflection for that day. What better words to begin a pilgrimage? My heart was consoled; the Lord felt near. To trust in the Lord with all my heart was what I deeply desired in the days to come.

To keep reading come here