

From the Jesuit Schools Network in USA to the Ignatian Way in Spain

24 Jesuit educators and friends & Fr Jose Luis Iriberry, SJ began the Camino Ignaciano 2023 last May. We spent time at the birthplace of Saint Ignatius in the town of Azpeitia. We concluded our first day with Mass in the room where Ignatius recovered from his injuries and began his conversion. Seven current Georgetown Prep teachers and two former GP teachers are part of this 2023 Camino and they shared their experience. Buen Camino Pilgrims!
