

In a very hot summer, arriving to Manresa on July 31st!

Teachers from different Jesuit High Schools from USA in a 12 days pilgrimage. Learning about themselves, about their limits and hopes, about their dreams. Feeling the closeness of Jesus along the walk and in the liturgies. Experiencing the presence of the Spirit in the sharing. Rediscovering the huge value of that man called Iñigo of Loyola in order to understand how we can live in a simpler way, being close to God. Some of them had to strive hard.....

Keep reading here