

Miami Cuba discovering Saint Ignatius

A group of Cuban-American pilgrims explain their experience as Ignatian pilgrims in the journal Centro de Estudios Coexistencia (nº 73, January 2020). This is a socio-cultural magazine that, they say, “from inside Cuba.” Interesting pilgrimage for the extraction of the group, unlikely to walk. Great experience and remembering Cuba when passing by José Martí’s house in 1873. A model pilgrimage for those who prefer the bus to walking boots.

See the description here