

Opened the Ignatian Way of Respect

Following the project proposed jointly with the Foundation Respect (Euskadi) the Ignatian Way has already begun to wear artistic objects related to the value of respect.

The starting point of the Ignatian Way in Loyola is marked by a work of art that represents the union of the languages expressing respect. In one of the endpoints of the road, at the shrine of La Cova de Manresa, another work of art it represents the effort of the pilgrim, respecting the road at all stages.

Other artworks will be added to the first along the Jubilee Year in other towns and cities. In a few years it may go a real string of artworks, reflecting and expressing the value of respect.
